Only boxers scheduled to compete will weigh in on Sunday. Boxers are not required to shave. All boxers will be allowed to weigh in twice during the designated weigh-in period. No weight allowance in the Open Class. Novice boxers are allowed 2 lbs. Weigh-Ins shall not last more than 2 hours and will start at 7:00am SHARP. Weigh-ins will be conducted by Golden Gloves officials and the Golden Gloves Chief of Officials.

EXPERIENCE LEVEL

- Novice class boxers have no more than 9 bouts.
  - Open class boxers must have 10 or more bouts.
- **Boxers eligible to advance to Nationals will be required to have a minimum of 10 bouts.

All elite advancing bouts will be required to contest 3, 3-minute rounds.

Athletes who have competed in other amateur combat/striking sports (e.g., MMA, kickboxing) are required to compete in the open class and may NOT enter as novice without permission from USA Boxing. For information on how to request a waiver, see page 73 of the current USA Boxing rulebook

EQUIPMENT & UNIFORMS

Headgear: All Golden Gloves competition will be conducted with USA Boxing approved headgear. The headgear color does not need to coordinate with the color of the assigned corner, but wearing the color of the opponent's corner is inadvisable (i.e., avoid wearing red when you are in the blue corner, or vice versa). All open boxers must wear open-face headgear (no cheek protectors).

Gloves: All competition will be conducted with USA Boxing approved gloves which will be provided to the athletes for use during competition.

10 oz gloves will be used for boxers weighing up to 139.0 lbs

12 oz gloves will be used for boxers weighing 139.1 lbs or more

Gauze, Tape, and Hand Wraps: A maximum of one roll of gauze per hand and 6'x1" of tape. Training hand wraps are also allowable for use in competition.
